How to Ace Your English IGCSEs

9:30 - 10:30 am

Is your child taking the IGCSE in English Language or Literature? This G10 exam is used by many schools as an external benchmark of their own programs and will often be reflected in the transcript used for university applications. Come join our session, led by Mr. Coetzee, explaining the format of the exam and useful approaches to the unseen and prescribed texts.

How to Raise Readers & Writers in the Age of Screens

10:00 - 11:00 am

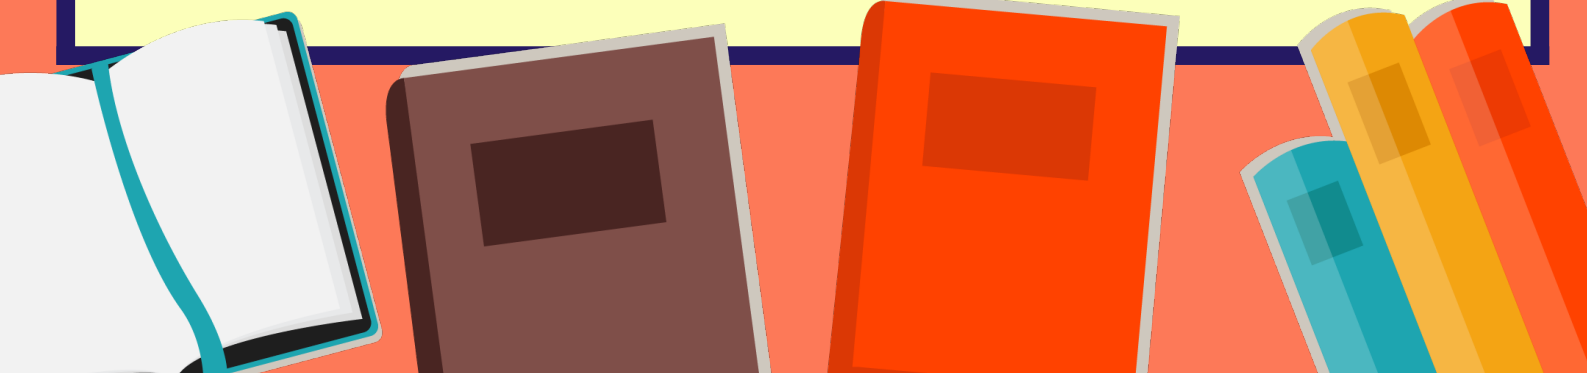

Is your child always glued to a screen? What habits can you adopt to encourage your children to read books and online texts critically? How do we read and tell stories in the digital age? How can students improve writing skills across a range of media? Our Founder Renee will explore ways to develop strong readers and writers in this screen-saturated world. Learn how to put a book (and more) back in the hands of your child.

To Leave or Not to Leave:
Boarding vs. International School

12:00 - 1:00pm

What are the key factors in determining which path is better for your child? What are the differences between the two, and when is the right time to switch? To help parents make well-informed plans, Renee will offer a comparative analysis of the two school systems, offering objective data and sharing her first-hand experience as a student and teacher.

Cultivating Innovators in the Classroom and at Home

2:00 - 3:00pm

Innovation is the lifeblood of social and technological progress and research shows that creativity fosters happiness and well-being. So how can we cultivate creativity, divergent thinking, and innovative problem-solving in different subjects? Three of our most experienced teachers will host this panel to share insights on how to nurture innovators - what does it take beyond curiosity and imagination?

Nailing your Common Application and Ivy League Admission Essays

3:30 - 4:30pm

Join Collegewise counselors Meredith Graham (Cornell) and Lauren DeMeo (Georgetown) to learn the critical strategies for presenting your applications to American universities. Meredith and Lauren will discuss the purpose of the different application components and how to present a compelling personal narrative throughout the entire application, from the activity list to the essays. They will also suggest ways to find and share your best stories in your essays.
